

Contract for Speaking and Event Services

Between the St Paul Center and Dr. Scott Hahn, also referred to as Speaker and, Event, hereafter referred to as Scheduled Event.

The Speaker agrees to speak at the Scheduled Event on Date located in Location. This includes one to three talks delivered in a single day.

The Scheduled Event agrees to pay the St. Paul Center the following

1. $4000 per day payable in full at the event.
2. An additional charge of $500 per night if Speaker is required to stay overnight the night before or after due to Scheduled Event.
3. Scheduled Event additionally agrees to reimburse all travel expenses, lodging, meals, and parking for Speaker and one member of the St Paul Center Staff. Scheduled Event agrees to pay for first class domestic flights as chose by Speaker.

The Scheduled Event agrees to provide a minimum of X number tables for the sale of books for Speaker and St Paul Center materials; this varies based on the event. The tables need to be in a prominent well-trafficked in relation to the speaking venue and agreeable to Speaker. The Schedule Event agrees to provide a minimum of X number volunteers to assist with event check-in, assist with St. Paul Center presentation, and selling of materials.

Registration is required for all events and will either need to be provided by Scheduled Event or can be provided by the St Paul Center. Furthermore, if registration is handled by the Scheduled Event, the names and contact information (Emails, Address, etc.) of attendees is to be shared with the St. Paul Center.

During Scheduled Event the St Paul Center reserves 10 minutes of the program to do a presentation about the St Paul Center and solicit support for our mission. Materials for this will be provided by the St Paul Center and volunteers will help to distribute and collect these materials during the event.

This contract is limited to the speaking services described above. It does not imply permission to record, copyright, or distribute or sell audio, video or written transcripts of talks given at Scheduled Event. A separate agreement will be used to establish such arrangements.

The St Paul Center reserves the right to cancel this agreement at any time, if in our opinion:

1. The Scheduled Event fails to meet the obligations and stipulations in the Scheduled Event Planning Letter or this Contract for Speaking Services.
2. The event coordinators and Speaker are unable to work harmoniously together in coordinating plans for the Scheduled Event.
