

Contract for Speaking and Event Services

Overview

Between the St Paul Center and Dr. Scott Hahn, also referred to as Speaker and, Event, hereafter referred to as Scheduled Event.

The St. Paul Center is excited to feature founder & president, Dr. Scott Hahn on Date at Location. The St. Paul Center will cover all the expenses for Dr. Scott Hahn which includes his travel, honorarium, and lodging. The Center will also cover any expenses for additional staff needed to help run the event.

The Scheduled Event agrees to pay the St Paul Center a $500 administrative fee, provide book tables, and provide volunteer support where needed, for example with Registration at Event, book sales, St. Paul Center appeal, and ushering. The number of volunteers and tables needed will vary based on the size of the event.

Program

Dr. Hahn will give number talks and the St. Paul Center will manage all ticket reservations for the event. Tickets will be capped at number persons. Ticket price for the event will be $Price. The registration page will be found at URL. Talk titles will be agreed upon at a later date. All ticket reservations should be directed to the registration page or they can call the St. Paul Center front desk at 740-264-9535.

The St. Paul Center will invite attendees to consider partnering with its mission. The Center will provide pledge cards and will need a group of volunteers to help serve as ushers.

This contract is limited to the speaking services described above. It does not imply permission to record, copyright, or distribute or sell audio, video or written transcripts of talks given at Scheduled Event. A separate agreement will be used to establish such arrangements.

Promotion

The St. Paul Center and the Scheduled Event will promote the parish event on all their marketing channels, including email, bulletins, mailings, working with surrounding parishes, etc. The St. Paul Center will provide the Scheduled Event with marketing materials that they can share with their parishioners and greater Catholic community in the area.

Signed: _____ Date: _____
Scheduled Event Representative

Signed: _____ Date: _____
St. Paul Center Representative